

TWO SONGS
from
"THE WIND
IN THE WILLOWS"

(Ducks' Ditty and Toad's Triumph)

for Treble or Children's Chorus and Piano

by

Christopher Kies

copyright © C.Kies 1997

Ducks' Ditty

for Treble Chorus and Piano

Text from "The Wind in the Willows"
by Kenneth Grahame

Music by Christopher Kies

Dabblio movimento ♩ = 132-138 ritard a tempo mp

Chorus

Piano

mf ritard a tempo p

4

Through the rush - es tall, Ducks are a - dabb - ling, Up tails all!

7

ritard a tempo

Ducks' tails, drakes' tails, Yel - low feet a - qui - ver, Yel - low bills all out of sight

10

Bus - y in the ri - ver!

13

mf ritard a tempo

Quack, quack, quack, quack, Quack. Quack, quack, quack, quack.

16

20

ritard a tempo

Toad's Triumph

for Treble Chorus and Piano

Text from "The Wind in the Willows"
by Kenneth Grahame

Music by Christopher Kies

Boastingly ♩ = 132 mf

Chorus

Piano

mf

Cle - ver Fa - mous, Hand - some, _____ 3

He - ro - ic, Sa - lu - ted, Cou - ra - geous, _____

5

mf cresc. f

In - tel - li - gent, En - cour - ag - ing, In - ge - ni - ous, and In -

N.B.: from the pick-up to bar 7 through bar 8, the pianist may play some vocal pitches to help with intonation.

8

mp

com - par - a - ble! ——— The world has held great He - roes, As

f Red. p secco

11

his - to - ry books have showed; But ne - ver a name to go down to fame Com - pared with that of Toad! The cle - ver men at Ox - ford Know cresc.

13

cresc.

15

mf

all that there is to be known. But they none of them know one half as much As in - mf